The monthly meeting of the Free Church Men's club will be held next Tuesday evening at 7.45 o'clock. Alfred L. Ripley will speak on "The Currency Question."

A union service will be held at the Free church next Sunday evening at which Rev. E. Victor Bigelow will speak on the recent Congregational convention at Kansas city.

Rev. E. Victor Bigelow preached at the South church last Saturday morning, devoting the greater part of his address to a report of the recent Congregational conference at Kansas City.

A few members of the Natural History Society enjoyed a trip through the Middlesex Fells last Saturday with the members of the Teacher's School of Science, Boston. They report a very pleasant outing.

A benefit concert and dance is to be held on the evening of November 28, in A. O. U. W. hall. The affair is for the assistance of a man who has been ill for a long time, and tickets should find a ready sale at 25 cents each.

Last Sunday morning showed a very successful rally at the Baptist church, there being 170 in attendance at the service. The sermon was on true prayer, the mark of the Christian, and James S. Daly sang a solo, "Face to Face."

Mrs. E. C. Cole, Miss Hilda Rice, Master J. Alexander Rice, and Mrs. Alexander Crockett spent Monday visiting Miss Alma L. Sawyer of Melrose, the occasion being the latter's birthday. Miss Sawyer is a niece of Mrs. Crockett.

The number of books issued at the Memorial Hall Library for home use during October was 2756 volumes. The branch at Ballardvale circulated 586 books for the eight afternoons and evenings that it was open. Of these, 184 were borrowed during the evening hours.

The "Tried and True" Cook Book published in connection with the Free Church Fair in 1903 has had such a remarkable sale that the edition has for sometime been exhausted. Constant calls for the cook book has led to the printing of a second edition which will be ready in two weeks at 35 cents a copy.

Many local people took advantage of the display of Copley Prints made at the Gift Shop on Wednesday and Thursday of this week, to visit the shop and inspect the beautiful pictures shown. The exhibition was made by Curtis & Cameron of Boston and was in charge of a special representative of that firm.

A good-sized crowd of men and women greeted Charles S. Bird and his dust-covered "flying squadron" when they visited Andover last Friday afternoon. H. Huestis Newton was the first speaker, and was followed by Mr. Bird, whose remarks were much appreciated by his followers.

A largely attended and very enjoyable social was held at the South church on Tuesday evening by the members of the senior and boys' departments of the Sunday school and the teachers of the school. Vocal solos by Mr. Collins and Mr. Robbins were enjoyed and games of various kinds played, after which refreshments were served.

The annual business meeting and election of officers of the Courteous Circle of King's Daughters was held at the South church on Monday evening. The newly elected officers are: Leader, Miss C. ### To Sell W. H. Higgins Farm

The prospective purchaser of real estate will have a rare opportunity next Monday, November 10, when William H. Higgins' place, known as Prospect Hill Farm, will be sold at public auction. Prospect Hill Farm is situated on one of the highest points in Essex county, and developed as it has been under Mr. Higgins' care, it is suitable for any of several purposes, either as a country home, a club house or an inn.

The farm consists of a 10-room house, two large stables, two carriage houses, three henhouses, corn house, tool house, etc., and about 150 acres of land.

One thousand dollars will be required to be paid at the time of the sale, which will be in charge of Auctioneer C. F. Keyes of Lowell.

Linen Shower

On Monday evening a linen shower was tendered to Miss Kitty Cole at the "Hillside" by her many friends. The house was prettily decorated with chrysanthemums by Miss Sprague, in honor of the approaching wedding of Miss Cole. A bountiful supply of linen articles was bestowed on the prospective bride. Refreshments were served.

Those present were: Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. Guthrie, Misses E. Sprague, B. MacDonald, M. McCabe, M. Reynolds, N. Driscoll, M. Young, A. Ross, E. Smith, K. Cole, and E. Anderson.

THISTLES JUNIOR TITLISTS

Local Team Wins Soccer Championship of Junior League, Andover Wins Ninth Straight

On last Saturday afternoon the Thistles clinched their title to the junior league championship by defeating the Andover Hearts on the local playstead. There was little doubt as to the outcome of the game as the Thistles had previously defeated the Hearts, and although the latter were only one goal down at half time, the second period was all in favor of the Thistles, who added three more goals and won easily, 4 goals to 1. Except for a short period in the first half and again at the opening of the second half when the Hearts tied the score, the Thistles easily held the upper hand and deserved their victory.

R. Lynch scored the first goal for the Thistles after forty minutes' play, and this was the only goal scored in the first half. The Hearts tied in the first few minutes of the second half, McGlynn from a pass by Killackey beating Deyermund for the fourth time this season. The Thistles' second goal was accidentally scored by Campbell of the Hearts, but Macconnachie or Carnathan could have easily scored the point. R. Lynch, who was playing a great game, scored the third, and Craik was beaten for the fourth time by Carnathan.

The teams:
Thistles—Deyermund; Robb, Rae; Caldwell, Macconnachie, Nicoll; Low, J. Lynch, Carnathan, R. Lynch, Black.

Hearts—Graik; Valentine, Campbell; J. Nicoll, Ness, Nicoll; Addley, Porter, Killackey, Brennan, McGlynn. Goals made by Carnathan, R. Lynch 2, McGlynn; Campbell made goal for Thistles accidentally. Score, Thistles 4, Hearts 1. Referee, Suddall. Time, 40m. halves.

The Thistles have but one more game to play and ought to win that. So far they have not lost a game, the Lawrence Juniors getting a tie with them two weeks ago. This is the only point they have lost this season. The record is as follows:

Thistles 10;	Clan Juniors 0
Thistles 3;	Hearts 0
Thistles 2;	Olympics 1
Thistles 1;	Olympics 0
Thistles 3;	Corinthians 0
Thistles 4;	Lawrence 2
Thistles 2;	Corinthians 0
Thistles 0;	Lawrence 0
Thistles 4;	Hearts 1

Andover 5, Bunting 0

With a splendid victory over Bunting Andover completed the first half of the Lawrence, Lowell and District league games. Nine straight victories is the record set up by the United, a new one for soccer in this district. Last week's game found the team traveling at its usual fast pace and working like a clock, the forwards a perfect offensive machine, the backs a defense of the stone-wall order. But for the wonderful goal-keeping of Birtwhistle, Bunting's custodian, the score would have reached double figures.

About one hundred fans accompanied the team to Lowell.

Bunting kicked off against the wind, but Andover at once became aggressive, and with the wind at their backs charged down on the Bunting goal. The strong wind, while helping the Andover defense, greatly interfered with the combination play of the forwards and it was twenty minutes before the first goal was made, Dougherty heading in from a corner kick. Before the half closed, Page beat Birtwhistle with a long shot. Andover 2, Bunting 0.

On resuming play, Andover faced the wind and settled together better than in the opening period. Cairnie, from a long shot by W. Smith, which the goal-keeper stopped but could not clear, played the ball into the net for the third count. Bunting visited the Andover end, but Bradni missed an open goal and their chance was gone. The ball changed ends quickly, and Page, after a pretty run, scored the fourth goal. The game was very one-sided but not uninteresting, for Andover was giving a grand exhibition of soccer. Cairnie finished the scoring by netting the fifth goal from a scrimmage in the goal mouth. The lineup:

Bunting—Birtwhistle; Mahan, Smith; Atherton, Partington, Glegg; Glegg, Newman, Bradni, Kelly, Taylor.

Soccer in the Local Schools

The game of soccer will be introduced into the Andover schools, and at the meeting of the school committee the purchase of six soccer footballs was authorized. The game will be played by the upper grade boys and the pupils of the center schools will have the advantage of the coaching of James Ryley, whose splendid work with the Phillips Academy soccer team is bearing fruits this season. They will also have the use of the playstead, the goal posts on which being the property of the Board of Public Works.

Only preliminary work can be done this year, but next fall it is expected a school league will be organized with a cup, donated by some local merchant, for competition. The game is admirably suited for the younger boys.

Andover begins the second half of its schedule tomorrow afternoon on the local grounds when the Haverhill team will make its first appearance. The first time these teams met Andover won, 9 goals to 0, but the visitors have been strengthened considerably. They will try for the honor of giving Andover its first defeat, but the home team is out to claim a clean record of wins.

At a regular meeting of the Andover United football club in the village hall last Monday, the following changes were made in the management: Edwin Anderson quit the duties of treasurer to become secretary; John Elder of Stevens street is the new treasurer and he takes office with the club in a very good financial standing. Archie McLaren was elected financial secretary.

Score-keeper, Edwin Anderson announced the results of the October competitions for the football club members' tournament as follows: Dominos: first, William Stirling; crinoline, Robert Jackson and Chas. Rennie; whist, William Hyde, with Robert Jackson the booby. The checker matches unfinished leave Ed. Downs, Sr., Daniel Low, James Cavin and Ed. Downs, Jr.

P. A. Soccer Schedule

The following soccer schedule has been arranged by the manager of the Phillips Academy team. All of the games will be played in Andover unless otherwise designated.
October 31, Springfield Y. M. C. A. College.
November 5, Harvard Fresh.
November 12, Harvard Varsity.
November 19, Middlesex School.
November 26, Harvard Fresh, at Cambridge.
December 6, Worcester Academy at Worcester.

COLONIAL

"The Madcap Duchess," Victor Herbert's latest comic opera, is the best of his musical show productions. The story is a well connected one dealing as it does with the adventure of a young hoyden of noble blood in France. This is the last week of Ann Swinburne's engagement in the play at the Colonial.

MAJESTIC

"Bought and Paid For," a play with a great deal of human interest and with natural and everyday situations, is attracting large audiences at the Majestic theatre. The four principal characters are well drawn and strongly contrasted.

TREMONT

This week offers the last opportunity to see "The Follies," which has had so successful a run at the Tremont. The piece is one long succession of rapidly changing scenes with many principals, comedians, singers and dancers.

HOLLIS STREET

Julia Sanderson still remains at the Hollis Street theatre in "The Sunshine Girl." The piece is a typical London Gaiety musical comedy with a little story to carry it along. The excellent work of Miss Sanderson and the large chorus from the basis of the success of "The Sunshine Girl."

PLYMOUTH

"Let's Go A-Garden-ing" at the Plymouth theatre concerns the attempt of a young woman to induce a group of tenement dwellers to raise flowers and thus beautify their homes and surroundings.

PARK

Miss Ferguson's acting is the principal feature in "The Strange Woman," at the Park theatre. Her expression of her radical ideas and her subsequent winning over from them by the mother of the man she loves, forms the basis of the story.

Editor Hoag Confesses

"For many years, as Editor and proprietor of the Pine Plains, N. Y., Herald, I have advertised Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. While I enjoyed not only the business relationship but the personal friendship of Dr. Kennedy, I have never, until now, paid him a long standing obligation. For many years, as my friends so well know, I suffered excruciating pains from rheumatism. Many were the nights when it was impossible to sleep. Without much faith, I admit, I tried as a sort of last resort, a bottle of Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, just as thousands of others had done before, and like them I found permanent relief. Favorite Remedy has stood the test of time and I believe it is the best medicine in existence for effectually expelling the cause of rheumatism—uric acid. My regret is that I have neglected to make this frank confession long ago. It makes my kidneys do their work properly, tones up the liver and makes one feel that life is worth living. I publicly and earnestly advise all my friends who are suffering from troubles that arise from unhealthy kidneys and liver, to get a bottle of Favorite Remedy at once. There is no use in putting it off as I did." S. T. HOAG, Editor.

The scope of the Democratic victory in Tuesday's election, by which the entire Democratic state ticket was elected, and the marvelous gains of the Progressives, not only in the vote for Charles S. Bird, but also in the election of nineteen members of the house, two members of the senate and two members of the governor's council, were the things to talk about when people got together. Charles S. Bird led his Republican opponent, Congressman Augustus P. Gardner, by 10,363.

The success of the Progressives places them in a most strategic position in Massachusetts politics. Their candidate for governor finished second and the splendid campaign which he waged in every village and hamlet in the state brought about the election of local candidates in sufficient numbers to give them the balance of power in the lower branch of the state legislature.

Through the defeat of several prominent Republican candidates for the legislature and the increase of the Democratic and Progressive membership the Republican strength in both senate and house was shot to pieces. The senate of 1914 will be made up of twenty-two Republicans, sixteen Democrats and two Progressives.

The house will have 114 Republicans, 106 Democrats, nineteen Progressives and one Socialist in its membership.

Three Republicans, three Democrats and two Progressive-Democrats will make up the executive council, with a Democratic lieutenant governor as presiding officer.

The defeat of President Levi H. Greenwood of the senate opens the way for a stiff fight among the Republicans for the presidency and already several candidates have been mentioned.

IN THE LAKE STATES

Republicans Elect Mayor in Vincennes, Ind., For First Time

Returns from the elections held in cities of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois show the following results:

Ohio—In Cincinnati, Frederick S. Spiegel, Republican, was elected over Henry T. Hunt, Democratic incumbent, by about 3000 plurality.

Cleveland re-elected Newton D. Baker, Democratic mayor by a reduced plurality.

In Toledo, Carl Keller, Republican, was chosen mayor by a plurality of 7000.

Columbus re-elected George J. Karb, Democrat, mayor.

Indiana—In Indianapolis Joseph E. Bell, Democrat, for mayor, was successful by a plurality of approximately 5000. The Republican and Progressive candidates for mayor ran about an even race.

Of the large cities in Indiana, Evansville, Terre Haute, Fort Wayne, Muncie, Logansport and Anderson will have Democratic administrations, while in South Bend and Lafayette the Citizens' tickets were successful.

For the first time in the history of Vincennes, the oldest town in Indiana, the Republicans were successful, electing a mayor and other city officials.

In twenty-four municipalities of southern Illinois, women, who exercised the right of franchise for the first time in the state, voted in the ratio of four to one in opposition to saloons.

Of twenty-four cities and towns voting under the township unit law, the "drys" won or retained eighteen, the "wets" held five, and there was a tie in one.

BRYAN DENIES AN ULTIMATUM

Declares None Has Been Sent to President Huerta

FOR PEACEFUL ADJUSTMENT

Mexican Situation Is Rapidly Coming to a Head—Admiral Fletcher Ordered Not to Shift Ships Until Further Orders—Can Put 500,000 Equipped Soldiers in Field at Once

Secretary of state William J. Bryan gave out a statement denying that any ultimatum had been sent to President Huerta. He said:

"No ultimatum has been sent to Mexico, and it is unfortunate that the press should give credence to such a report. The harm done by speculation or even inaccuracies with regard to domestic questions is limited because the people are acquainted with the subject and can make allowances, but as misstatements with regard to international matters may lead to serious consequences I feel justified in making the above denial."

The Mexican situation is rapidly coming to a head, but with prospects of a peaceful adjustment, Senator Bacon, chairman of the senate committee on foreign affairs, declared after a long conference with Secretary Bryan and Secretary of the Navy Daniels.

Secretary Daniels presented to the conference a report of the naval strength now in Mexican waters and the additional strength of the vessels due to arrive there. He ordered Admiral Fletcher not to shift any of his ships until further orders are given.

The supply ship Justin is under orders to start for the west coast of Mexico about Nov. 13 with additional supplies for the American ships in the vicinity of Guaymas. The war department is ready in case of need to put into the field 500,000 men, armed and equipped for action. An unusually large number of specifications are being sent out inviting bids for supplies of all kinds, particularly quartermaster stores, and the ordinance department has recently closed big contracts for powder.

Senator Bacon's significant announcement that the "Mexican question would soon have to be debated by the senate" led to the belief that congress would have to decide the final attitude of this country.

Discussion of the possibility that President Wilson might again take the Mexican situation to congress in a personal address was revived in administration circles.

In the absence of any official statement, but on the basis of expressions of opinions by competent observers, it is believed Huerta has been informed that practically all the powers diplomatically represented in the Mexican capital are disposed to defer to the United States in the task of restoring constitutional government.

HUNTER IS SHOT

Special Policeman Kills Man Who Refused to Obey Command

A hunter who refused to obey a command that he cease shooting in Swope park, Kansas City, was shot and killed by Frank Robinson, a special officer.

Robinson was attracted to a wooded region of the park by the sound of shots. He found the hunter in the act of shooting a squirrel and ordered him to desist. The hunter replied by firing at Robinson, who then shot him through the head. The hunter was not identified.

Aeroplane Wins Battle

For the first time in actual warfare, an aeroplane has decided the success of a fight. A detachment of cavalry was attacked by a larger force of natives near Ceuta, Morocco, when the Infante Alfonso in his aeroplane appeared, followed by the aerial flotilla. The frightened natives fled.

GENERAL NEWS EVENTS

On a charge of sending a "poison pen" letter to a neighbor of Elizabeth N. J., Mrs. Nelson Pollock pleaded not guilty and was released on $500 bail.

H. J. Leake, editor of the Laurel (Miss.) Chronicle and a well known newspaper man in the south, has disappeared and his friends and relatives fear that he has met with foul play.

That the men of America have too much stomach and not enough chest, and should wear corsets as a remedy, is the opinion of Count August Schaffelsky DeMukkel DeCastellaine Saymore of Tours, France, who is spending an hour each day in the window of a Pittsburgh clothier, demonstrating the correct method of wearing clothes.

The business district of Philadelphia, also the Delaware river front, is menaced by a fire which the firemen found difficult to fight. The blaze started in the J. J. Lenhart paper box factory.

Sylvia Pankhurst in a speech at Hackney, Eng., announced that a volunteer army to defend the suffragette movement was to be raised in the East End of London.

INSANE RULER OF BAVARIA DEPOSED

Ludwig Proclaims Himself King to Succeed Otto

The insane King Otto was deposed from the throne of the kingdom of Bavaria, which he has occupied for twenty-seven years without being aware of his position, and Prince Regent Ludwig proclaimed himself king in his place in pursuance of the provision of a law recently enacted by the two houses of the Bavarian diet.

The new king is to be known as Ludwig III. He will take the constitutional oath probably on Nov. 8.

A royal proclamation posted throughout the kingdom declares incurable the insanity which has incapacitated Otto from ruling, and states that in consequence of this Prince Regent Ludwig has brought his regency to an end, has ascended the throne and nominated himself king.

The deposed King Otto was born April 27, 1848, and succeeded his brother, Ludwig II, who drowned himself in Starnberg lake, June 13, 1886.

AMBASSADOR ROBBED

Joseph E. Willard Loses Jewels in Spanish Hotel

The theft of jewels amounting to thousands of dollars belonging to Joseph E. Willard, the American ambassador, was reported to the police by the manager of the Palace hotel at Madrid. The authorities have ordered a minute investigation, but no clue to the identity of the thieves has been found.

Joseph E. Willard, American ambassador to Spain was nominated by

JOSEPH E. WILLARD

President Wilson and confirmed on Sept. 5. At the same time the United States government raised the legation at Madrid to the rank of an embassy. Ambassador Willard arrived at Madrid recently and on Oct. 31 was received by King Alfonso.

Mr. Willard, though born in Washington, was a lawyer in Richmond, Va., when he was appointed. He married Miss Belle L. Wyatt of Baltimore in 1891.

Little Boy Has Lucky Escape
Louis P. Lebreque, 4 years old, of Manchester, N. H., was knocked down and run over by a fast-moving automobile and escaped without injury of any kind.

NEW ENGLAND GLEANINGS

Mrs. Chester Sherman, 41 years old, committed suicide with a revolver at her home in Greenbush, Mass.

Mrs. John Stevens of Bartlett, N. H., sought the aid of the police in locating her son, Edward Barbank, aged 32, whom she believes to have met with foul play. He has been missing from his home for more than a week.

On his way home from school, Charles Jeffreys, 6 years old, of Hope Valley, R. I., ran in front of a heavy touring car and was almost instantly killed.

Word was received at Franklin, Mass., that Miss Ola Smith, 13, is at the home of relatives in Norfolk Downs. She had been missing since Oct. 27.

Miss Cora Towne, 24 years old, of Johnsbury, Vt., who is slowly dying from bichloride of mercury tablets, accused Fred Finn, a chauffeur, of giving her the tablets.

Peter Pelkey, 8 years old, of Fairfield, Vt., while driving home from this city, was thrown from his carriage and met death by suffocation under his horse.

Another death from cerebro spinal meningitis, which has found several victims in Penobscot county, Me., was that of Miss Asquith H. Russell, daughter of Professor F. L. Russell of the University of Maine, and a junior at the university. She died at her home after a brief illness.

A Bit of History

In the issue of the Townsman of November 5, 1909, attention was called in this column, under the heading, "The Evolution in Essex County," to the "success" which the defeated candidate for Governor at last Tuesday's election had realized in his attempts to dominate Republican politics in Essex County. The words are rather significant and will bear repeating. After reviewing the votes secured by leading Republican candidates in Essex County in previous years to that time, in which the Republican strength had fallen off about twenty per cent (and since then twenty per cent more), the following words were used:

"Congratulations to Mr. Gardner upon his efficient work; but woe betide the party, to which the writer is just as loyal as is Mr. Gardner, if it is to continue to stand for such arrogance and impudence as have in recent years marked the control of it by the Congressman from the sixth district! Why should he include in his abuses the Andover Townsman? It is not published in his congressional district. We know why; because he wishes to control this section of the state just as he has controlled his own section so long; because he would attempt to dominate newspapers in this end of the county as he has in his own end; because in brief his purpose is to be the czar of Eastern Massachusetts and in that role ultimately hold the place now occupied by his honorable and distinguished father-in-law. Let us say to Mr. Gardner that he can't do it. Let us say to him that it will be better that Essex County should cast a 10,000 Democratic majority than that it should continue to yield itself to such tactics in politics, such intemperance in language, such outrage in conduct as have marked the last few years of his attempted domination."

A great deal has happened since the above was written. The first steps towards the succession of Mr. Gardner to the position now occupied by Senator Lodge was decided upon a short time ago, to be worked out through his election as Governor of Massachusetts. The result of the election last Tuesday has probably led those who had mapped out this line of progress, to choose a new path upon which they must travel if they would secure the ultimate goal. Mr. Gardner is not henceforth available timber for the governorship of Massachusetts.

That he has ability is universally conceded, but the use of that ability in the public service would better hereafter be confined to caring for the interests of the congressional district upon which he has such a strong hold. If he has learned the lessons from his past two months' experience that should teach to him the value of co-operation in political action, and the value of stability in political opinion, and some of the other important lessons that the most efficient public servant should learn, there is yet for Mr. Gardner a generous amount of public service which he may perform for the people of Massachusetts. The opportunity for that service may ultimately lead him to succeed his distinguished father-in-law. This, however, is a very far cry in the campaign which must carefully be considered for rebuilding the Republican party. The immediate need is for Mr. Gardner to forget his ambitions, and for all other men to forget their ambitions, all thoroughly aroused to the one purpose of rehabilitating the Republican party in Massachusetts into the position where it rightfully belongs.

Hatfield the Gentleman

For some time we have believed, and have not been slow in expressing the opinion, that it was unwise to continue Mr. Hatfield as chairman of the Republican State Committee, but, with many other men in the commonwealth who have seen what he has passed through during the past few months, we are going to take off the editorial hat to him at this time and thank him for his courteous, honest, persistent and consistent attitude in the trying time through which he has just passed.

Charles E. Hatfield will not retire from his position with many victories to his credit, and we are not sure that there is a single one which the public will grant to him unless it be that one which he has just won in making secure for himself the title of the true gentleman and the further title of a gentleman who stood his ground and won a victory for "political organization." Have we realized quite how big a victory this is? If not, let's think for a moment how ineffective has been the candidacy of two of the candidates for Governor, who ignored organization and tried to work out political salvation as individuals. The Republican party, the Democratic party, and the Progressive party owe a debt of gratitude to Mr. Hatfield for performing a splendid service to good government through his stand for party responsibility.

Now for Real Rebuilding

Speaking at the Essex outing, in opening his campaign for Governor, Augustus Peabody Gardner announced that he rejoiced that he had had a part in the destruction of the Republican party. If he were to follow that same thought in a public address at the present moment, he could very properly claim the same sort of satisfaction over his success in finishing the work of destruction, so efficiently performed under his leadership during the past three weeks, culminating in the election by the Democrats of a Governor, Lieutenant Governor, every executive officer, a majority of the Governor's Council, and an even division of the State Legislature.

If the result of Tuesday means the entire overthrow of the Gardner proprietorship of the Republican party in Massachusetts, then it is one of the best jobs that has been done for many a day. Bitter as the dose is, to men who believe in Republican principles, who rejoice in the past success of the party, and who believe it has a great mission to perform as a constructive organization, it has its compensating features in the opportunity it will give to the real supporters of Republican principles, to begin at the bottom here in Massachusetts and build on a new and firm foundation, a new Republican party in the state.

Never in the history of the state has there been witnessed such a display of egotistical proprietorship, demanding its own way, brushing aside every factor which had the temerity to disagree, riding rough-shod over opposing principles and ideas, as the state has witnessed during the campaign now closed.

No man who knows the character of many of the men who have suffered defeat because of this man Gardner, can fail to feel very deep regret over the loss to the public service which comes through the result of last Tuesday's election. For those men who have gone down under the weight of the Gardner domination of Massachusetts Republicanism, every loyal Republican will feel the deepest sympathy. The question, however, that should be taken up for consideration now is not along the line of a post-mortem, but rather along the line of as far a look as possible into the future.

We believe that the result will ultimately prove to be a real blessing in disguise; but a blessing to be secured only through the willingness on the part of every friend of the Republican party to bury personal prejudices, to forget personal ambitions, and to unite in one purpose of making the party in Massachusetts more powerful than ever.

Governor Foss

The vote for Governor Foss on Tuesday represented the call of only a small portion of those who would have liked to see him continue as Governor. Many men went into the election of Tuesday with the fixed purpose to defeat the ambitions of three of the other candidates, but it was not possible to focus this desire upon any one man.

On the Republican side there were thousands who felt that the success of the Progressive party meant the destruction of a long organized and heretofore splendidly conducted responsible party. They had hoped there would be a Republican leader standing for principles around which they might rally. They were disappointed in the outcome of the primary; they knew the character of the man who had been selected to head the Republican ticket, and they concluded that the quickest possible return to Republican control in Massachusetts lay through the success of the Democratic ticket. As an evidence of this trend the entire vote of the western part of the state, showing a tremendous falling off in the vote for Gardner from that given to Walker last year, furnishes abundant proof.

Thousands of other Republicans believed that the Democratic party should not be in control, and they could not see any other way in which the defeat of Mr. Walsh could be accomplished than by voting for the man who appeared to be the strongest man in the race among his opponents, and in this way the vote for Mr. Bird was swelled very greatly. We believe these two factors represent nine-tenths of the excess votes secured by both Messrs. Bird and Walsh.

Governor Foss will go out of office on January 1, with the shadow of this present defeat entirely lost sight of in the light of the splendid record of service accomplished in his three years as the state's chief executive. This is no time to review his work. Many of his friends will wish he had not been a candidate for re-election, but he is a man who does not take advice from his friends along these lines. He makes up his own mind, and works out his own plans. He maintains a cheerful disposition, and the most generous measure of optimism always controls both his opinions and his action. There is still work for him to perform in public service.

The Local Result

The election of Mr. Bailey as representative assures to the town the best endeavors of a man whom she has trusted in public life for many years, and who will bring nothing but credit to the town in his new position.

We have refrained from comment upon this local situation during the campaign as we did not wish to become involved between three men whose friendship we prize.

The campaign circular issued by one of the town's "most eminent reformers" and signed by himself and his personally selected chairman ought to receive more than passing attention. The voters, however, gave such a substantial answer to the scurrilous attacks on both of the candidates who topped the list, that it is probably not worth while going into details or making very extended remarks. It might be fair, however, to suggest to the gentleman whom the reformer has been using as a figurehead that a careful analysis of the charges which he has made as chairman of the Progressive town committee would not reveal a very careful attention to duty on his part as trial justice of the Town of Andover.

Editorial Cinders

Governor Walsh will go into office with one of the greatest opportunities ever placed at the disposal of the state's chief executive. Great problems will confront him, and the very best endeavor of which he is capable will be demanded. He will be Governor of all the people without any party affiliations concerned. As Governor he deserves and should have the support of every man who believes in what Massachusetts has stood for, and in the great work which is still before the state as a pioneer in progressive legislation and efficient administration of public service.

The Progressive party has made a strong stand in the two years in which they have fought for recognition under the leadership of Charles S. Bird. The campaign during this particular year has been one of the most cleverly arranged and best managed campaigns ever worked out in this country. The success they have had has been well deserved, so far as political methods and political management is concerned, but it is a success entirely due to individual leadership and lavish use of money to promote individual fortunes. Whether they shall continue where they are, or whether most of them will return to the Republican party will depend not nearly so much upon the action of men in their own party as it will upon the promise held forth to them and thousands of others who are independents at the present time, through the character of the reorganization of the Republican party which is about to take place.

Thanksgiving Sale

The ladies of Christ church will hold their annual Thanksgiving sale on November 25, the Tuesday preceding Thanksgiving, and contrary to the usual custom it will take place in the rectory instead of the parish house.

Andover housewives who have patronized this sale in past years need not be reminded of its importance and advantages, while those not acquainted with it have but to visit it once to realize that it gives an excellent and timely opportunity for the purchase of homemade pies, cake, candy, jellies, preserves and other Thanksgiving goodies. There will also be a domestic table where aprons and various other articles can be bought.

The sale will open at 11 o'clock and continue through the afternoon. Tea will also be served in the afternoon. Orders for Thanksgiving supplies may be left with Mrs. M. A. Baldwin, 109 Main street.

Auction Club Entertained

The first meeting of the season of the Auction Club was held on Friday evening at the home of Miss Alice Jenkins on School street, and took the form of a most unique and enjoyable Halloween party.

After the guests had assembled, favors, consisting of various fruits, were distributed by a witch in the person of Philip Stearns, in a very ceremonious and graceful manner. Partners were found by means of the favors, and auction enjoyed, Mrs. Frank Hardy winning first prize.

Following the cards, the guests were summoned to the dining-room by Miss Sara Jenkins, disguised as a spook. Here decorations of pumpkin yellow had been employed and the table uniquely arranged by the hostess. At each place was an individual candlestick, consisting of a parsnip lady, with an apple head and twigs for arms. Huge catapla leaves served as doilies, while dishes had been converted from sections of squash with orange peels serving as cups. At each corner of the table was a pedestal of blueberry twigs, from among which gleamed a jack-o'-lantern. Other lanterns glimmered in various parts of the room.

The chef d'oeuvre of the decorations was the centerpiece which consisted of a squash chariot with turnip wheels, filled with vegetables, on the top of which was seated a tall-hatted figure driving a pair of potato horses.

The light refreshments which were served also conformed as much as possible to the Halloween style, and the entire evening was one of great entertainment for all present.

Grange Fair Opens

The first night of the Grange Fair opened on Thursday evening with a large number present. As usual the Grange maintained its reputation for a bountiful turkey and oyster supper, mashed potatoes, ice cream, cake, etc., the supper committee being composed of the following: S. H. Bailey, F. M. Foster, W. J. Clark, H. Mayo, F. A. Swanton, Mrs. M. G. Mayo, Mrs. G. M. Carter, and Mrs. Hicks. The following served as waiters: M. H. Gould, Paul Ward, Philip Moorar, Ralph Bailey, Misses Abbie McGovern and Mabel Bailey.

Upon entering the upper hall one noticed the effective green and white decorations, while ranged around the hall were the various tables, prettily decorated, bountifully laden, in charge of the following members: Candy table: Misses Madeleine Hewes, Luella Phelps and Ebba Petersen.

Flower table: Mr. and Mrs. Playdon and Pauline Petersen.

Cake table: Mrs. G. Averill, Mrs. M. Gould, and Mrs. F. Swanton.

Fancy apron table: Mrs. Edward Burr and Miss Charlotte Hill.

Fancy table: Mrs. W. Corliss, Mrs. L. Danie, and Mrs. J. McGovern.

Kitchen apron table: Mrs. I. Hill, Mrs. C. Jameson, and Miss J. L. Thompson.

Mystery and peanut table: Mrs. C. Lawrence, Mrs. J. Buchan, and Miss Nellie Lawrence.

Vegetable exhibit: E. W. Burr and W. B. Corliss.

Checkroom: J. Grosvenor and C. A. Jameson.

There were also various guessing contests in which the prizes will be awarded at the close of the sale to-night.

Music during both evenings is furnished by Newton's orchestra, composed of Charles Newton, violin; Mr. McLennen, cornet, and E. Davis, piano.

A free barge will leave the square tonight at 6.30 and 7.30 to convey those who wish to attend.

A. V. I. S. Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Andover Village Improvement society will be held in the Lower Town hall, Monday evening, November 10th, 1913, at 7.30.

Alfred E. Stearns, Principal of Phillips Academy, will give a short address on the topic, "What I owe the town in which I live."

Prizes for the best compositions on this topic will be awarded to the winners among the school children. Other speakers include Nathan C. Hamblin and Geo. T. Eaton.

The reports of the secretary and treasurer will be given, followed by the election of officers, after which light refreshments will be served and there will be a social hour.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

EMMA J. LINCOLN,
Secretary.

Tuesday Club at Home

The members of the Tuesday club were at home to their friends Tuesday afternoon, November 4, at the home of Mrs. Henry Bodwell on Morton street. The guests were received by Mrs. Bodwell and the officers of the club—Mrs. Smith, Miss Hewes, Mrs. Holmes, and Mrs. Hussey. The rooms were very attractive with their decorations of yellow chrysanthemums. The dining-room was especially pleasing with its basket of flowers and soft candle-light.

This fall reception has become an annual event of the club and each year is greatly enjoyed by both hostesses and guests.

THE VOTE IN ANDOVER

Result of Tuesday's Election Shows Andover's Preference for Bird for Governor and Bailey for Representative

Andover's part in Tuesday's state election was somewhat surprising in outcome, a fact which was due entirely to the unusual splitting on the tickets on the part of the voters. In the choice of Governor, the town went for Bird, the Progressive candidate, the result showing a lead of 43 votes over his near-opponent Walsh. Gardner came third, with Foss a poor fourth.

In the representative question, Bailey easily won out, carrying almost one by a vote which almost equalled the combined votes of Mr. Crowell and Mr. Crowley, and winning in precinct two by four votes to the total of the other two candidates.

The Republican candidates on the ticket were as usual upheld by a strong Republican vote, although the Democratic vote mounted up a little increase.

The total number of ballots cast in 1923, made up as follows: Precinct 1, 1008; and Precinct 2, 168. The first was lively throughout the day and representatives of all three parties worked actively in bringing voters to the polls. At two o'clock a total of 850 votes had been cast at the Town House. The polls were closed at 4:30 o'clock and the total returns were in about 7:30.

HALLOWE'EN PARTIES

Local Observances of Old Time Festival in School and Private Homes—Usual Pranks Played by Boys and Girls

Hallowe'en, with its witches and bats, its black cats and gleaming lanterns, its mystery and weirdness, was appropriately observed in Andover last Friday evening by numerous folks, both young and old, who enjoyed the customary Hallowe'en games and frolics.

The celebration of the time-honored festival on the part of many of the small boys began almost before twilight set in, as with pea and bean shooters, ticktacks, etc., supplemented by their own healthy lungs, they made many neighborhoods resound.

Later in the evening there were numerous festive gatherings in various private homes which were much enjoyed by the guests who were present. The pupils of Pynchard School also joined in their annual masque party in the school hall.

Pynchard Masque Party

The students of Pynchard School held a very enjoyable masquerade dance and Hallowe'en party on Friday evening. Nearly all the members of the school were present, and the opening march, led by Howard Cates and Miss Doris Piper, presented a gay scene.

Following the march, potato races, sack and peanut races were enjoyed, the winners being as follows: potato race, Guy Webster; sack race, Paul Abbott; peanut race, Margaret Henderson.

Miss Caroline Davis of the faculty then gave an interesting talk on old-time witchcraft, and the origin of Hallowe'en. This was followed by general fortune-telling by a very realistic witch, which finally gave place to dancing. Refreshments were also served during the evening.

A Hallowe'en Supper

Mrs. J. E. Pitman of Park street gave a Hallowe'en supper Friday evening which was deeply enjoyed by the guests present.

The dining-room was gaily festooned with gleaming jack-o'-lanterns and from various positions in the hall swung witches, devils and black cats, all typical of Hallowe'en.

The table was covered with a cloth patterned with witches and goblins, while overhead the jack-o'-lanterns looked down and spread their flickering light. The guests were ushered into the living-room by a ghost impersonated by Miss Wiley, and then led to the dining-room where they were received by a witch (impersonated by the hostess herself) who presided over a huge and ancient caldron (such as the witch of Endor brewed her fateful concoctions in and mumbled over in preparing her herbs of magic power). But the caldron on this occasion was found to contain escalloped oysters which were heartily enjoyed by the guests.

After each guest was served, the witch picked from the bottom of the kettle conundrums which were answered by the guests, and fortunes were also told and jokes cracked.

Large pumpkins hollowed out, with sputtering lights were found to be well stocked with dainties and doughnuts. It was an evening of great fun and jollity.

Among those present were Miss Etta Dodge, Miss F. M. Porter, Miss Leonora O'Neill, Miss Janette Wiley, Miss Sara Poor, H. S. Newman, Geo. White, H. Skerry.

George F. French, instructor at Phillips Academy, and Mrs. French, very pleasantly entertained the Phillips students who make their home with them, at a Hallowe'en party on Friday evening.

A Fine Hallowe'en

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Buttrick entertained a number of their friends at a very pretty Hallowe'en party at their home on Wolcott avenue on last Friday evening.

The house was decorated for the occasion with lanterns, witches and other symbols of the season, and the refreshments served during the evening bore further evidence of the Hallowe'en spirit. These consisted of sandwiches, doughnuts, cheese, cider and confectionery.

The guests were greeted with a darkened house and were directed to the cellar where they were ordered to follow a rope which wound around various posts, corners and stairs to the second floor of the house. Here they were met by a small-sized ghost in the person of Miss Martha Buttrick, who directed them to dispose of their wraps. This being done, they were invited to the floor below. Here a solemn ceremony was enacted, each guest being compelled to kneel and repeat a pledge which bound them to enter into the festivities without hesitation and to do their share of the evening's fun. The oath was administered by a full-sized ghost and on one or two occasions the seriousness of the rite was apparent. It was rather hard at times for the ghost and subjects to refrain from laughing. At the conclusion of this ceremony each guest was presented with a badge of office, and the fun began.

All sorts of Hallowe'en games were played and these were followed by tricks performed by some of the men. Selections on the Victrola and songs made up a fine musical program.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Buttrick, Mr. and Mrs. David R. Lawson, Mr. and Mrs. James S. May, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Wade, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Perry, Martin R. Sawyer, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chadwick, Mr. and Mrs. David L. Coutts, Misses Mary W. Scott, Alice Yates, Alice S. Coutts, Edith Messer, Elizabeth Gordon, Mrs. Dana W. Clark, William C. Coutts.

Entertained School Friends

A pleasant Hallowe'en party took place at the home of Miss Margaret Donovan on Chestnut street, when she entertained twelve of her classmates at the Pynchard School.

Hallowe'en games were played and other features of the evening much enjoyed by the guests. Attractive decorations were employed in honor of the occasion, while refreshments were served in true Hallowe'en style.

Those present were Beatrice Poland, Alice O'Connell, Gladys Ralph, Irene Arnold, Lester Abbott, Eldred Larkin, John Dugan, Wilson Knipe, Eunice Stack, Gustave Brown, Benj. Dane.

Free Church Y. P. S. C. E.

The members of the Free Church Christian Endeavor society gathered in the parish house on Saturday evening at a very pleasant Hallowe'en party. Several of those who attended appeared in costume and added greatly to the enjoyment of the evening.

Numerous games were played after which each one present received a box which was found to contain ample refreshments.

OBITUARIES

BURFEE A. PARKER

The many local friends of Burfee A. Parker were shocked to learn on Wednesday of his sudden death which occurred shortly before midnight on Tuesday. Mr. Parker had been about his usual duties during the day, and the end was very unexpected. He had suffered at intervals from heart trouble for several years, although he had not had a severe attack for some time. On Tuesday he complained of feeling ill, but continued with his work, and in the evening visited a local physician. Returning home he retired as usual, and shortly before midnight was taken ill, and in less than ten minutes had passed away.

Mr. Parker, who was forty years of age, was born in Nova Scotia. For the past 18 years he had made his home in Andover, and for an equal period he had been employed as manager of the Ripley farm, on the road to Spring Grove cemetery. While he was a man who had few interests outside of his home and work he made many friends here whose sympathy is extended to his family in their sorrow. He leaves his widow and one son, Walter.

The funeral services will be held on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the family home, and will be conducted by Rev. E. Victor Bigelow. Interment will be in Spring Grove cemetery.

MRS. NATHAN SHATTUCK

Andover lost another of her older residents on Sunday morning, November 2, when Mrs. Nathan Shattuck passed away at her home, 4 Whittier court. The deceased was fifty-one years of age. She had been in poor health for over two years, and of late had failed rapidly.

Mrs. Shattuck was born in Roxbury, but had for many years made her home in this town, where she was well and favorably known by a large circle of friends. She leaves to mourn her loss her husband, two sons, John and James, two daughters, Mrs. John Shevlin and Miss Margaret Shattuck.

The funeral services took place on Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock from St. Augustine's church, and burial was in St. Augustine's cemetery.

School Committee Meets

The School Committee held its regular monthly meeting on Tuesday evening, at which considerable routine business was transacted.

It was voted to introduce soccer football into the schools and arrangements were made to buy footballs for that purpose.

A revision was made in the by-laws of the committee, so that a committee could be appointed on repairs and equipment, their care to be all repair work and physical equipment in the school buildings. The members of the committee are Bartlett H. Hayes, Henry A. Bodwell, and Frederic G. Moore.

Andover Guild

Miss Frances E. Baier comes to Andover this fall as superintendent of the Guild. She comes highly recommended from former work in Lowell and elsewhere, and has already made friends with her fellow-workers at the Guild.

Work in the various classes has already begun and it is a pleasure to all interested in their work to anticipate success under Miss Baier's leadership.

The Andover Guild is in some respects a unique institution and has shown its usefulness in many satisfactory ways. It is a matter of congratulation that it begins another year of work free of debt, with an excellent plant in first class condition, large enrollments, and a trained superintendent from whom the best of helpful work may be expected.

Barnstormer Tickets Exchange

Tickets for the first performance of the Barnstormers can be secured by those who hold membership receipts, at the Bookstore, next Tuesday, November 11. The seats will go on exchange at 8 a.m. The arrangements regarding the number of tickets which can be secured by one person, will be the same as last year.

Those persons who have not thus far sent in their remittance for continued membership are urged to do so at once if they desire to secure seats for the first performance. Remittance may be sent to Percival Dove.

The initial bill, which will consist of two plays, "The Bugler and the Girl" and "A Sheep in Wolf's Clothing," will be given on November 18.

Historical Society Meeting

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Andover Historical Society took place last Friday evening in the school committee room.

Reports were read and other business transacted. The new officers are as follows:

President, Dr. Charles E. Abbott. Vice-presidents, Mrs. S. N. Carter, N. E. Bartlett. Secretary, Mrs. Frank T. Carlton. Treasurer, George Abbot. Council, William A. Trow, Rev. C. C. Carpenter, Mrs. Frank T. Carlton, Mrs. M. S. McCurdy, Miss Belle J. Butterfield.

Republican Rally

A well attended Republican rally was held on the "night before" in the Town hall. About 75 voters were present and listened to remarks by Judge Lane of Brockton, Louis Cox of Lawrence, and William De Cume of Belmont.

Nov. 10 Set Aside as Fire Prevention Day

Governor Foss has designated November 10 as Fire Prevention Day and asked the citizens of Massachusetts to centre their attention on that day upon the work of diminishing fire risks. This was the governor's proclamation:

Last year, upon the fortieth anniversary of the Boston fire of 1872, I designated a day to be known as Fire Prevention Day; and now, in the belief that the annual observance of such a day will promote the public safety, I hereby designate, and set apart Monday, November 10, as Fire Prevention Day.

On that day all grounds and buildings, both public and private, should be inspected and fire risks removed. Cellars, and particularly furnace rooms, should be cleared of inflammable waste; defective pipes, flues and chimneys should be repaired.

Owners and tenants of mills, shops and factories are urged to take steps for the protection of their employees against fire, and to furnish adequate fire escapes and facilities for fighting fire.

During the past four years there have been over twenty-six thousand fires in Massachusetts, the annual number increasing from six thousand in 1910 to seventy-four hundred in 1912. The total loss during these four years has been over thirty-five million dollars, the annual loss reaching its maximum last year of nine million four hundred thousand dollars.

During this period the total value of property damaged by fire was over five hundred thousand dollars.

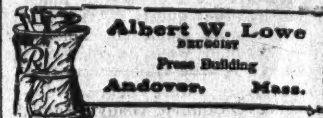

Last year, also, thirty-two hundred forest fires were recorded, involving a very heavy loss to owners and serious risk to adjacent communities. Over seventy per cent of these fires, upon investigation, were attributed to carelessness; and thirty per cent to steam railroads.

I therefore urge that public attention be centered, if only for one day each year, upon the work of diminishing fire risks, furnishing more adequate precautions against fire and more effective apparatus for fighting it.

In testimony whereof I have hereto subscribed my name at the Capitol, in the city of Boston, this fourth day of November, A.D. 1913.

MEMORIAL HALL LIBRARY

New Books Added in October
BARR, MRS. A. E. ALL THE DAYS OF MY LIFE.

A long and complete record of a busy life. Mrs. Barr has avoided an egotistical atmosphere and writes in a sincere and unpretentious manner. As her literary career began late, a large portion of the book is taken up with the non-literary period, which is none the less interesting.
—92 B271
CASTLE, HAWAII, PAST AND PRESENT.

A general handbook of the island, covering its history to the time of its annexation by the United States, its commerce and industry and several chapters on descriptions of island life, natural features, volcanoes, flora, fauna, etc. Will interest the general reader as well as the tourist. The appendix contains list of hotels and information for travelers.
—919.69 C27
EASTMAN, ENJOYMENT OF POETRY.

"The purpose of this book is to increase enjoyment"—Preface. It compares the practical impulse, which is to achieve, with the poetical impulse, which is to realize. Differs from other studies in that it is concerned wholly with substantial values, illustrated by real poetry, and not at all with ordinary academic study. A stimulating book for the lover of poetry.
—608.1 E13

TRAILL AND MANN. SOCIAL ENGLAND. 12v.

A very valuable set of books, recording the progress of the English people in religion, laws, learning, arts, industry, commerce, science, literature and manners from the earliest times to the present day. The work consists of short, excellent treatises by eminent specialists on each subject.
—942 T68

TREVELYAN. LIFE OF JOHN BRIGHT.

The first adequate and comprehensive biography. It is a scholarly work, developed with much literary skill, presenting with penetration, entire fairness and with a sympathy born of hearty admiration for its subject, a living portrait of the great orator and statesman in the midst of his struggles for reform. Many pertinent quotations from his letters and speeches add to the vividness of the narrative. One chapter of particular interest takes up his services to the northern cause during the Civil War. Well illustrated and well indexed.
—92 B767

WHITE. AFRICAN CAMP FIRES.

Spirited sketches of hunting and adventure in British East Africa, which give an excellent idea of native life, the country and its development by the white man, the game found and the spirit of Africa, and often show a pleasant sense of humor.

The Lack of Stamina and Vitality

In the birds is the cause of 85% of the failures in the poultry business. Therefore, see to it that you are one of the successful 15% this year by putting your birds on this economical complete horse sense system that produces Stamina and Vitality; convinces yourself by giving it a thorough trial.

Let us send you report from Prof. Horace Atwood, of Morgantown, W. Virginia, Exp. Sta., who is one of the highest authorities on poultry husbandry. He has fed 81,000 lbs. "Hen-o-la" during past four years and is still feeding same.

The above system makes poultry-keeping wonderfully simple and cheap. If your dealer will not supply you, please write us for full information and prices on "Hen-o-la," "Hen-o-la" Dry Mash and "Succulenta" tablets—green food substitute.

Andover-Exeter Tomorrow

The annual Andover-Exeter game will be played at Exeter tomorrow afternoon and indications point to an unusually close game. The Exeter squad is by far the strongest that the school has put on the field for a number of years, and backed as it is a very successful preliminary season, is decidedly the favorite.

Andover, however, is full of courage, and her team which has been severely handicapped by illness, scholarship conditions, and adverse weather, has during the past week been fast rounding into shape. If the weather should prove favorable, giving Andover a dry field, the home team will have a good fighting chance.

Several old Andover football men have been in town for a few days helping in the last bits of coaching and pulling the team into shape, so as to get the best possible teamwork, for it is on that, and forward passes, rather than line work that Andover will depend.

Many local people have been disappointed in not being able to secure tickets for the game, but for two or three days none have been available. Reports from Exeter announce an unprecedented sale of seats, so that an extra stand will be necessary to accommodate the crowd.

Yale Fresh 20, Andover 10

Andover was defeated 20 to 10 by the Yale Freshman team on the Old Campus on Saturday afternoon.

In the first period Lagore made two long runs, the first of 50 yards and the second of 60 yards, the latter resulting in a touchdown. Wiley failed to kick the goal. Just before the period ended Captain Murray of Andover made a fair catch and kicked a goal from placement from the 25-yard line.

Lagore scored again in the second period, a run of 30 yards placing the ball on the five-yard line, from which he went over on the next play. Wiley kicked the goal.

Lagore made Yale's third touchdown in the third period on a run around right end. Wiley kicked the goal. Sands made Andover's touchdown in the last period after four successful forward passes, all being thrown by Murray and three being completed. Murray kicked the goal. The summary:

Punchard 7, Methuen 7

In a hard-fought game on the playground on Saturday afternoon, Punchard held the strong Methuen team to a tie score of 7 to 7. Cates of the local team scored a touchdown after a 25-yard run. Cole of Methuen scored on an intercepted forward pass.

The summary:

Andover and Woburn Branch

The annual meeting of the Andover and Woburn Branch of the Woman's Board of Missions was held on Thursday in the First Congregational church, Lowell. Two sessions took place, the first opening at 10:30 o'clock at which reports were read and principal address made by Mrs. John Howland of Mexico.

Luncheon was served at 12:30 o'clock and the afternoon session opened at 2 o'clock. Addresses were made by Smith Baker, D.D. and by Isabel M. Blake of Turkey. The latter told among other things, of their finding in the excavating for a new building, of a copper kettle containing Dutch coins dated from 1628 to 1636. Several of these coins Miss Blake exhibited and later sold as souvenirs.

Officers were also elected for the coming year, with but few changes from last year. Mrs. E. Y. Hinch of this town was re-elected president and Mrs. Edward S. Gould of Lawrence treasurer. The treasurer's report showed the receipts for the year to be $5641.94, of which $2337 came as a legacy from a resident of Dracut. The amount received for the pledged work very nearly totaled the required sum of $3400.

Several ladies from Andover were in attendance at the meeting.

Special Grange Session

A special session of the State Grange was held in Boston last week at which the sixth degree was conferred on a class of 982 candidates. George L. Averill of this town acted as assistant deputy in the ceremonies, while Mrs. Averill was a member of the court. Those from Andover who took the degree were Fred A. Swanton and Chester D. Abbott. Ira B. Hill was also in attendance from Andover.

This meeting, together with one held the preceding day at Worcester, at which 300 candidates were admitted to the degree, was preparatory to the session to be held November 13 at Manchester, N. H., when the seventh degree will be exemplified. The entire class, which will number about 1770, is the largest one that New England Grange degree work has known.

Can't Afford It?

Let's figure it out and see

How much would you charge to go to the grocer's or the provision dealers?

How much would you give, on a stormy day, to be able to visit a distant friend?

How much would it be worth, in case your child were taken suddenly ill at night, to be able to summon the doctor at once, and, perhaps, by special instructions from him by wire, to be able to give temporary relief pending his arrival or even to save its life?

The expense of a telephone is not figured by what it costs for a whole year, but by how much it saves each time it is used. Therefore, with all these things in mind, ask yourself

Mrs. B. F. Stafford was called to Fitchburg Thursday on account of the death of her mother, Mrs. Neal Davis. The deceased was well known here in the village.

Mrs. Laura F. Moore, a former well-known resident of Ballardvale, died Saturday at the Nevins Home.
Mrs. Moore was born in Dracut, July 23, 1847. The deceased was a member of the local Congregational church. During the past few years she has been an invalid at the Nev-

A 10-ROOM HOUSE, TWO LARGE STABLES, TWO CARRIAGE HOUSES, THREE HEN HOUSES, A CORN HOUSE, TOOL HOUSE, AND ABOUT 150 ACRES OF LAND AT

Andover, Mass., Monday, Nov. 10, 1913

At 10 o'clock A. M.

PROSPECT HILL FARM is located in the noted town of colleges, situated at the highest point in Essex County and commanding a most beautiful view of the surrounding country. The buildings, which consist of an old-fashioned house of ten rooms, having fireplaces and the necessary requisites that go with such a place, two large stables, one 68x38, has a tie-up for sixteen head of cattle, six box stalls and two single stalls. The other stable is used for the storage of hay, grain, farm tools, etc. Both have high-posted cellars. The main barn having a driveway leading to the same; the carriage house being a two-story building with basement, the first floor being used for an office, sleeping room and the storage for vegetables. The upper floor is used for the storage of hay and grain. There is a large shed in the rear of the main barn that is used for the storage of farm wagons and tools; three good-sized hen houses and a corn house complete the set of buildings all of which are in excellent condition and supplied with town water.

The land, consisting of about 150 acres is divided into pastures, hay land, and vegetable gardens, the soil being adapted for early or late vegetables. There are also two small wood lots and a good-sized pond. The present owner has cut as high as 100 tons of hay, besides leaving him ample pasture and planting room. There are also about 400 fruit trees, 200 being young trees set out two years ago.

For a Country Home, a Profitable Investment, a Country Club or Public Inn, you have every convenience, excellent facilities, a good approach and splendid advantages if one would care to improve. You are twenty-three miles from Boston, eleven miles from Lowell and Haverhill, five miles from Lawrence, and about one mile and a half from Andover Centre.

THE PERSONAL PROPERTY consists of 12 head of cattle, eight of them being young Holstein stock from one to two years old; one pair of gray draught horses, weighing about 2750 lbs., good workers, single or double; a very handsome black horse weighing about 1200 lbs., young, sound, and fearless; one brown horse, a good driver; 150 hens, Rhode Island Reds; 20 pigs; a Moyer Concord wagon, a Moyer top buggy, a station wagon, a market wagon, a two-horse hay wagon, a two-horse dump cart, manure spreader, four sets of double harness, two sets of single and driving harness, express harness, two single sleighs, trawlers runner sled, one two-horse double row corn planter; one two-horse potato planter; one two-horse mowing machine, one sulky plough, harrows, ploughs, drags, forks, chains and general farm implements.

Mr. Higgins, the present owner, can be seen at the farm every day from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. and he will be pleased to show the farm or give any information desired to intended purchasers.

If you are interested in farm property, be sure and look this place over, as seldom is such a place offered for public competition, and the sale will be absolute rain or shine, to the highest bidder.

TERMS—$1000 will be required and must be paid to the auctioneer as soon as the real estate is struck off. Cash must be paid on all personal property. By order of

About 50 attended the Y. P. S. C. E.
Halloween social held at the church vestry on Friday evening.
The costumes were unique and original and caused much fun and merriment. Mrs. Holmes E. Bates was awarded first prize and Charles W. Richardson second prize. Games were played and enjoyed by all.
Light refreshments were served and the occasion was a complete success.

An enjoyable Halloween party was held at the residence of Mrs.
Louis Kibbee Thursday evening.
Among those present were Misses Florence and Marion Snyder, Mary York, Louise and Alice Coates, Legaret Cronin, Hattie Kibbee, Master Philip and Master Donald Hilton,

Fred Shattuck, Chester Hendrickson,
Eugene Hutchins, Timothy Cronin, Vesta Perry, and Norman Kibbee.
Refreshments were served by Mrs.
Kibbee and Mrs. Charles Perry.
Games and music were enjoyed and prizes were given for a Halloween stunt. All returned home at a reasonable hour with an evening filled with fun and pleasure.

Installed Officers

Lodge Deputy George F. Tilton of Lowell, assisted by Miss Fannie S.
White as installing marshal, installed the newly elected officers of Ballard-vale lodge, No. 105, Monday evening. Mr. Tilton, who has been spending the summer in Canada, gave an interesting talk to the lodge which greatly encouraged and inspired the members.

Union Meeting

There was a good attendance at the union meeting held in Bradlee hall on Sunday. Rev. Perry S. Nelson presided at the meeting. Rev.
A. H. Fuller led in prayer. After a short praise service the chairman introduced as the speaker of the evening Rev. John S. Brant, secretary of the International Reform Bureau, who gave a very vivid and clear account of the work and aims of his organization, taking for his subject,
"Civic Righteousness and How to Obtain It."

Annual Entertainment Course

The Ballard Vale Mills Co. will furnish as is their custom, with their well-known liberality, a course of preach at the Methodist church.

ANDOVER NEWS*Wedding*KEOGH—HOLDEN

Ross J. Keogh, for several years a compositor in the employ of the Andover Press, was married on Saturday, November 1, at Nashua, N. H., to Miss Margaret E. Holden of Lawrence. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Edmund H. Soper of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Keogh left immediately for Boston where they passed a few days, before returning to Lawrence, where they are to make their home with the bride's parents on Marble avenue.

Obsequies

The funeral of Miss Eliza Gleason, more commonly known as Lila Gleason, took place last Sunday afternoon from her late home, 25 High street. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends of the deceased, while the many beautiful flowers which surrounded the casket were significant of the large place she held in the hearts of those who knew her.

Rev. F. A. Wilson, pastor of the Free church, officiated, the service of the Episcopal church, of which Miss Gleason was a member, being used.
The pall bearers were George A.
Frank P., and Charles A. Higgins, and William L. Frye. Interment was in the Episcopal cemetery.

Lila Gleason was born in Andover on April 21, 1862, and with the exception of a comparatively short time, had spent her entire life here.
She received her education in Lowell, being graduated in 1881 from the Lowell High School. Returning to Andover, she became associated in business with her brother, Frank E.
Gleason, who, for many years, has been a prominent coal dealer here.
In this capacity as well as in her church relations, she came into contact with many people who grew to prize her cheerful, kindly disposition and her ever-ready interest and sympathy.

Failing gradually in health, following a severe illness two years ago, she still retained her courage and optimism, and these traits which had characterized her entire life, did not fail her at its close. Seized with a shock on Sunday, October 26, which brought gradually increasing paralysis, she failed to rally, and passed away the following Friday.

She was interested in several international organizations, claiming membership in Indian Ridge Rebekah lodge, No. 136, of this town; Priscilla chapter, 52, Order of the Eastern Star, Reading; and the Golden Cross, Washington Commandery, 31, of Lowell.

She is survived by two brothers,
Frank E. of this town and Charles A.
of Oak Park, Ill.; one nephew, Randolph Wyman, son of a third brother, the late Fred W. Gleason; and one niece, Pauline.

A Card of Thanks

The undersigned wish to express their deep appreciation of the kindness and sympathy of friends and neighbors during their recent loss.

Baptist Church Meeting

The roll call meeting of the Baptist church, held Wednesday evening, was very largely attended, 105 of its congregation enjoying the bountiful supper. After a short social, the roll was called, to which ninety, a larger number than ever before, responded by word or by hearty letters. The thank offering amounted to $80.

A brief address was given by Perley F. Gilbert, on "The Ideal Sunday School."

WEST PARISH

Miss Phyllis Cunningham is spending the week-end in Malden with her aunt, Mrs. D. D. Black.

Miss Ruth Abbott is stopping in West Somerville at the home of her brother, Gayton Abbott, for several days.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Mildred Greeley Ward to Leverett Nelson Putnam of Danvers on Saturday evening, November 8, at the home of the bride.

Residents of the community will be glad to hear that recent reports from Rev. D. A. Walker seem to be very favorable, and he seems to be slowly improving in health.

The next regular meeting of the Grange will be held on Tuesday evening, November 11, when the third and fourth degrees will be conferred upon twelve candidates, after which a supper will be served.

Annual Supper and Sale

The Ladies' Aid Society of the West church will hold their annual supper and sale in the church vestry Friday, November 14. Supper will be served from six o'clock on through the evening for a reasonable charge. The supper will include oyster stew, escalloped oysters, cold turkey and hot mashed potatoes as the principal items.

The fancywork and aprons offer many suggestions for Christmas and anyone looking for attractive and inexpensive gifts will be rewarded by a visit to this sale. A large attendance and a generous patronage is earnestly solicited by the society.
